Share Your Housing Story

We want to hear from you! By sharing your stories and photos you can help community understand who lives here and what housing means to you. Did you grow up here? If not, that's okay! We also want to build all our resident stories! Did you move for a job, romance, school, or adventure? Why the area? Why the lifestyle? Are you living with roommates—or your mom or your grandma? Are you renting a studio, commuting into town, looking to downsize, or worried about finding your next apartment?

Stories like yours help illustrate why a thriving city is stronger—and more livable and lovable—when we encourage more homes of all shapes and sizes to give all kinds of people plenty of affordable options. These stories may be included in our Housing Action Plan.

If you would like to share your story, provide comment or have questions, please contact:
